

99 Jane Street

Construction was completed on this 99 unit 10 story luxury condominium building in Manhattan's west village in 1998. Construction is of flat plate concrete slab with a brick facing. Horizontal ribbon windows in all rooms provide panoramic and corner views. The design features a public garden including water features and seating.

